

Bob Grace

lead vocals, guitar

Singing has been a way of life in the Grace household for as long as anyone remembers. Bob is equally at home in traditional and contemporary repertoire, while his guitar accompaniments give the perfect lift to a set of tunes.

Danny Grace

lead vocals, mandolin, bodhrán

According to family legend, Danny was singing before he could talk! Since then, he has brought his voice and humour to three continents. You're always assured of a great night with Danny, whether onstage or in an informal session

Joe O'Farrell

flute, banjo, harmonica, vocals

The instrumental heart of the band, Joe's earliest experiences were in traditional music—a passion that has never left him, even though his training is as a classical flautist and composer. As a flautist, he specialises in the classical avant-garde—experience which can lead to surprising results when applied to the Kats' repertoire!

Matt Dunne

bass, bodhrán, vocals

Matt comes from a long line of singers and musicians. His driving bass lines lay the foundation for the unique Keltic Kats sound.
